

WHAT IS YETI?

YOUTH EMPOWERED TOWARDS INDEPENDENCE

YETI IS A NOT-FOR-PROFIT, COMMUNITY ORGANISATION.

YETI receives funding from the Commonwealth Department of Health and Ageing, Queensland Department of Health, Queensland Department of Communities and from Community Renewal.

YETI's mission is to empower young people towards independence by offering support, counselling, case management & outreach.

Under the Improved Services Initiative YETI now has the capacity to manage clients with the co-occurrence of Mental Health & Substance Misuse issues.

WHO CAN USE YETI

Any young person between 12-25 is welcome at YETI. If you are having problems in your life and want more control over what you do, YETI will be able to help you. YETI is a G.L.B.T friendly.

BASIC PHILOSOPHY

Working with the idea of empowering young people towards independence, we are not here to save or judge young people. Our interest is to help young people help themselves. All options will be made available as staff work collaboratively with the young people for the best outcome.
